

TEXTURES in ART

DAY 1/ Cordoba

Our itinerary will start in Cordoba, a city which lives its present day without forgetting the memory of its glorious andalusí past. We will welcome and accompany you to your chosen hotel and we will begin our cultural touristic experience with a lovely visit to the historical area of this ancient caliphal city, led by a local expert guide who will set us up for this first part of the journey. Evening meal in restaurant.

DAY 2/ Cordoba

Breakfast and visit to Mezquita -Cathedral, one of the most important artworks of all time, an example of the splendor of the Omayyad architecture. After an interesting visit we will have free time to walk around till lunch. In the afternoon we will visit the caliphal city of Medina azahara and we will return to our hotel where evening meal will be offered.

DAY 3 / Cordoba - Seville

Breakfast and we will resume our trip. We have visited one of the three greatest andalusí capitals, Omayyad Cordoba, our itinerary will continue on to an intermediate historic period, with the city which was an Almohade capital of al-Andalus: إشبيلية

On this day, led by a local tour guide, we will get to know one of Spain's most important historic city centers; we will visit its impressive Gothic cathedral and Real Alcazar, two important monuments that will allow us to visualize its historic becoming and the styles development and transformations, great memories of a shared past. Evening meal in hotel.

DAY 4/ Seville

After breakfast, we will keep getting to know our vast tangible and intangible heritage which enhances this magical city. Majestic palaces, unique boroughs, traditions...

This last night, we will share a very special evening, with a farewell panoramic visit and afterwards an evening meal and flamenco show as "grand finale" to our visit.

DAY 5 / Seville - Granada

Breakfast and we will travel on towards an ancient Nasrid capital: Granada. A city which awaits us to show us the present day of what was the epilogue of the history of Islam in the Peninsula Iberica, which it keeps with pride, the memory of the splendor of such great reign of al-Andalus. Evening meal and night visit.

DAY 6 / Granada

Breakfast and we start our day with a visit to the incredible Alhambra, led by an Islamic art and culture guide. After lunch we will enjoy a walk through the city, visiting part of its rich historic and artistic heritage that leads us into the present. Evening meal at hotel and lodging.

DAY 7/ Granada

Breakfast and transfer to railway station or airport. Here our services end.

